

Green Night

at

The Morgantown Public Library

* Thursday April 15th ****

Please join the Morgantown Green Team* on Thursday, April 15th, from 5:30pm - 7:30pm, at the Public Library at 373 Spruce Street.

This month's topic:

Organic Gardening

This month's format: Open House starting at approximately 5:30.

The Green Team will have various educational materials and will have Bill Wonderlin, Linda Shuster, and Jim Kotcon presenting on matters relating to organic gardening with smart suggestions for your home gardening projects. The open house will be a great opportunity to identify useful resources and discuss strategies and helpful tips for successful gardening. No previous experience is necessary!

Bill Wonderlin and Linda Shuster are avid organic gardeners with practical experience in growing many vegetables and fruits using organic techniques. Jim Kotcon is a professor of Soil Sciences who teaches a class on organic gardening at WVU.

* The Morgantown Green Team is a group of citizens with interests in sustainable issues that advises the City of Morgantown on matters related to sustainability in public policy, planning, education, departmental management, development, and evaluation of environmental and energy related matters.
